

BIOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

CARLOS TRAPAGA FONALLEDAS

Carlos Trápaga Fonalledas is CEO & President of TraFon Group, Inc., an import and export food distribution company headquartered in San Juan, P.R. TraFon has over 300,000 square feet of refrigerated storage facilities and over 200 employees in its combined facilities.

Carlos began his career in the highly competitive world of international banking, focused on asset management for Latin American clients. He was recruited and hired by ABN AMRO, a Dutch-owned bank, at the time one of the largest banks in the World with operations in 63 countries and over 110,000 employees.

After three years with ABN AMRO, rising to the position of Vice-President of Portfolio Management, he relocated from Miami to Puerto Rico. There, Carlos' extensive banking experience led to a new position with Banco Popular as Assistant Vice-President of Popular Asset Management. After a very successful five-year stint with Banco Popular, having been promoted to the position of Vice-President and Sales Manager for Popular Securities, Carlos decided to pivot into the world of entrepreneurship.

In 2005, Mr. Trápaga and his family acquired Star Meat a food distribution and processing company. With Carlos as President and CEO, the company began to grow, tripling sales in the first two years. In 2007, the company founded Caribbean Cold Storage and Logistics, and two years later acquired Packers Provisions and Provisiones Legrand. The expanded company was renamed TraFon Group in 2009.

Carlos is committed to a wide range of activities in support of a variety of social causes. Mr. Trápaga has previously served on the Board of Trustees of the Museo de Arte de Puerto Rico as well as on the Latin-American Board of Georgetown University. Currently, Carlos is an active board member of the Universidad Ana G. Mendez School of Hospitality & Culinary Arts.

Carlos is married to Christina Trápaga, and together they have three children.