

Rosa M. Rodríguez

Executive Director, Ernst & Young Puerto Rico LLC, San Juan, Puerto Rico

Rosa Rodríguez is an Executive Director in the Tax Advisory Division of the Tax Department of Ernst & Young Puerto Rico LLC, an affiliate of Ernst & Young LLP, with 26 years of experience in both Public Accounting and government. She has extensive experience serving clients in various industries, including the pharmaceutical and manufacturing services sector. She also has significant knowledge and experience of tax issues affecting major corporate clients and comprehensive knowledge of the various tax and fiscal regimes and planning opportunities throughout the region.

Rosa is a former Assistant Secretary for Internal Revenue Area. As part of her three years' experience with the Treasury Department, she worked, with review and draft of tax legislation, rulings, and tax exemption approval, revenue collection, managing of a workforce of nearly 3,000 employees through seven (7) bureaus, more than 100 collectors' offices, and five (5) regional administrative offices.

Rosa holds a bachelor in business administration with a major in accounting from the University of Puerto Rico and is a Certified Public Account in Puerto Rico.