

Mrs. Frances Aldrich Sevilla-Sacasa

Interim Dean, School of Business Administration
University of Miami

Frances Aldrich Sevilla-Sacasa has been the interim dean of the University of Miami School of Business Administration since January 2011. Previously, she was president of U.S. Trust, Bank of America Private Wealth Management, which serves clients with more than $3 million in investable assets. Prior to that, she served as president and chief executive officer of U.S. Trust Corporation when Bank of America acquired U.S. Trust in 2007 and also served on Charles Schwab Corporation's Executive Committee.

Sevilla-Sacasa has 30 years of experience in financial services, 25 of which are in global wealth management. In addition to serving in leadership positions at U.S. Trust and Bank of America, Sevilla-Sacasa has held leadership positions in this sector with firms such as Citigroup, Deutsche Bank and Bankers Trust Company.

She has led wealth management businesses for the United States, Latin America and Europe, in addition to a global trust business serving clients from all over the world. Sevilla-Sacasa holds a BA from the University of Miami and an MBA in International Management from the Thunderbird School of Global Management, and is fluent in four languages: English, Spanish, French, and Portuguese.

She has received numerous awards and recognitions, including The Wall Street Journal - The 50 Women to Watch (2007), and is active in philanthropic and community initiatives throughout the country serving on the boards of several non-for-profit organizations.