

Mr. Ignacio Mijares

President, Cemex de Puerto Rico, Inc.

Mr. Ignacio Alejandro Elizondo graduated from the Business School of Stanford University in California. Mr. Mijares Elizondo began his career in 1997 working for renowned companies such as THE BOSTON CONSULTING GROUP in Monterrey Mexico and Morgan Stanley Dean Witter in New York. In 2001 he joined CEMEX Mexico, where he established the successful Construrama Program, achieving more than 2,000 centers across the country and becoming an vital branch of business for this company. He was also Regional Director of Sales (2005) and Director of Channel Development to CEMEX Mexico (2008). His experience and knowledge in the commercial area led him to be part of the working group that developed the Post Merger Integration (PMI) in 2007 for Cemex Australia. By late 2010 he was appointed President of CEMEX Puerto Rico.