

Hon. Marco Antonio Huerta Sánchez

Deputy Consul General of Mexico in San Juan, Puerto Rico

Bachelor Degree in Political Sciences, Autonomous National University of Mexico (UNAM).

He received in 2000 the “Alejandrina Award for the Humanistic Research” in his State of origin, Querétaro, Mexico, with the study of “Enterprises and Entrepreneurs in Querétaro”.

Professor in bachelor and master degree in the Autonomous University of Querétaro (UAQ).

Researcher in the Center of Social Studies of the UAQ.

Member of the Mexican Foreign Service since 1992.

1993-1996, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of México in different areas: consular, historic research and economic analysis.

Master degree in Diplomatic Studies (1994), Institute Matías Romero of Diplomatic Studies.

1996-2002 in charged of Trade Promotion as well as Technical, Scientific, Educative and Cultural Cooperation at the Embassy of México in Jamaica.

2002-2009 in charged of the Economic Issues and Trade Promotion at the Embassy of Mexico in Brazil.

Since September, 2009, Deputy General of Mexico in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

---