

Mr. Rossell Barrios, Esq.

Shareholder and Member of the Litigation and Trial Practice Department, Goldman, Antonetti & Cordova, P.S.C.

Rossell Barrios is a shareholder of the firm Goldman Antonetti & Córdoba, P.S.C and a member of the Litigation and Trial Practice Department. Mr. Barrios handles distribution/franchise, commercial law, intellectual property, antitrust, complex/class action litigation, government procurement, environmental, torts and product liability litigation, dedicating most of his time to Dealers' Contracts Act (Law 75) litigation and counseling.

In 1978, Mr. Barrios graduated Magna Cum Laude from the University of Puerto Rico Law School.

Mr. Barrios was admitted to practice in the local courts of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico in 1982; U.S. District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (1983), the First Circuit Court of Appeals (1983), the U.S. District for the District of Columbia (1989), and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Mr. Barrios has been a member of the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising and American Bar Association's Litigation, Antitrust and Intellectual Property Sections. His published articles are: State Franchise Relationship Laws on Termination: Issues in Litigation, American Bar Association Forum on Franchising (2001) and Legal Issues Arising from Dealer and Distributor Relationships, American Bar Association Forum on Franchising (October 2006). Other published works by Mr. Barrios are Effect of Arbitration and Choice of Law Clauses on Act 75, Franchise Law Journal, Volume 16, No 1, (1996); Getting the Deal Through: Franchise, International Bar Association, (2007); and Getting the Deal Through: Franchise, International Bar Association, (2008).

In addition, Mr. Barrios has twice been a speaker at the American Bar Association Forum on Franchising.
