

Mrs. Sally Yearwood

Acting Executive Director
Caribbean Central American Action

Sally Yearwood returned to Caribbean Central American Action in 2008 to serve as Deputy Executive Director after working with the organization for six years between 1989 and 1995.

She spent 13 years in Haiti where most recently she worked as the Trade and Investment Advisor for the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). During her time in Haiti she also managed a European Union-funded project for the Caribbean Export Development Agency, worked as a private consultant, and was the Country Representative for the U.S. Department of Commerce. She has a BA in International Relations and an MA in International Development.

Headquartered in Washington, DC, Caribbean Central American Action (CCAA) has been promoting private sector-led economic development in the Caribbean Basin for over three decades. CCAA is host of the Annual Miami Conference on the Caribbean and Central America, now in its 35th year.
