PUERTO RICO Health & Insurance CONFERENCE 2012 Economic Transformation in Health

Mr. Juan M. Montañez
Principal, Health Management Associates (HMA)
Washington, DC

Juan has over eighteen years of experience and an extensive knowledge base that encompasses information technology, financial planning, business process optimization, strategic planning, cost-benefit analysis, government procurement and project management. Juan is currently leading the team working with the Department of Health on the planning phase of Puerto Rico's Health Benefits Exchange initiative. Juan is also leading an eligibility system reengineering initiative in the state of California.

Before joining HMA Juan held high-level positions in both the private and public sectors. Juan was a senior consultant at Mercer where he led major IT and health system transformation initiatives in Florida, Georgia, Hawaii, Minnesota, New Mexico, Puerto Rico, Tennessee and the U.S. Virgin Islands. Among these initiatives was the implementation of miSalud in 2010. Juan also served as senior advisor to Georgia's Chief Information Officer, Director of Strategic Research and Analysis for Georgia's Department of Community Health, and Budget Director and IT Manager with a thirteen-hospital system in the Atlanta metropolitan area.

Juan holds a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from MIT and an MBA from Georgia Tech.
