James was appointed President of Willis Re North America in 2010 and runs the U.S. operation in conjunction with Jim Bradshaw, CEO of Willis Re North America. James is responsible with growing our Property, Casualty and Specialty operations throughout North America, which is comprised of 11 branches based in the U.S. plus branches located in Canada, Bermuda and London.

Prior to his appointment as President of Willis Re North America, James ran the reinsurance operations for Willis Re Bermuda where he was responsible for developing new reinsurance business from Bermuda-domiciled companies and for managing inward business into the Bermuda reinsurance market. James was instrumental in establishing Willis Re's unique Bermuda platform and ensuring that the Bermuda operation became fully aligned with our worldwide network of offices, thus allowing our global clients to receive local representation when dealing with the Bermuda reinsurance market.

James joined Willis in 2004 from Aon Re (now Aon Benfield), where he served as Director for 13 years, producing and placing Property and Casualty treaty business. During his final two-and-a-half years at Aon, James served as Vice President of Aon Re of Bermuda.
