

PUERTO RICO

TELECOM

CONFERENCE 2011

THE NEW FUTURE

Mr. Juan Eugenio Rodríguez De Hostos Puerto Rico Chief Information Officer

Mr. Rodríguez is the Chief Information Officer for the Government of Puerto Rico. In his role as CIO, he is responsible for the development and implementation of the strategic plans, policies, programs, and initiatives for government wide Information and telecommunications technologies and services to transform the government of Puerto Rico into a client centric, efficient and effective enterprise that will also promote the economic development of the island.

Mr. Rodríguez holds a Master of Business Administration and a Master of Science in Engineering from Stanford University, and a Bachelor of Science in Engineering from the Yale University.

Mr. Rodríguez de Hostos has over seventeen years of experience in General Management, Business Development, Engineering, Consulting and Marketing. He has been involved in organizations and initiatives covering a wide range of industries including Financial Services, Healthcare, Pharmaceuticals, Information Technology, Logistics, Government, Real Estate Development, and Consumer Products.

Mr. Rodríguez de Hostos has been a cofounder of various companies offering educational, financial, management consulting and commercial services, often empowered by proprietary technologies, and has also held various operational and executive positions in companies such as Intel Corporation, AT&T, and Keane, Inc.