

PUERTO RICO

TELECOM

CONFERENCE 2011

THE NEW FUTURE

Mr. Oscar Jiménez-Mártir, P. E.
President, INTECO

He obtained with a Bachelors Degree in Industrial Engineering from the University of Puerto Rico at Mayaguez campus. Mr. Jiménez has taken several management courses taught by Harvard University Professors specialized technology products, commercialization information systems validation and project management. He is certified by the “American Production and Inventory Control Society” (APICS) as a professional in the field of a materials management.

He has a professional career of more than 35 years including leadership positions in engineering, manufacturing, information technology, sales and general management in various industries in and Puerto Rico, with emphasis on the manufacture of medical products. He has taught courses of Sacred Heart University in Puerto Rico, and at corporate and he has been invited to speak at many seminars on varied topics seminars sponsored by the Colegio de Ingenieros y Agrimensores of Puerto Rico, to which he belongs since to 1974.

In 1988, his concerns about Puerto Rico’s competitiveness led him to create together with a group a friends, Puerto Rico 2000 (PR2000), with the purpose of improving the competitiveness of Puerto Rico as a mechanism to increase the quantity and quality of jobs in Puerto Rico. He served as its funding President from 1988 to 1991.

He has been President of the Board of Director of the “South Western Educational Society” (SESO), a private educational institution located in Mayaguez.

Since 2003 he serves as President of the Eastern Central Region Technology Initiative known as INTECO, a multisectorial and regional nonprofit organization which its main objective is the promotion of innovative technology companies and the commercialization of new technologies.

In 2006, he was selected as “Distinguished Industrial Engineer” by the Puerto Rico Engineers Association (CIAPR). Also, in 2009, he was selected by the Puerto Rico Manufacturing Associations as “Executive of the Year” in the service sector.

However, his greatest pride is his family, his wife, Carmen, and his siblings, Viviana and José, both world class professionals.