

Jim O’Drobinak
Chief Executive Officer, President and Chairman of the Board of Directors

Jim O’Drobinak is the Chief Executive Officer and Chairman of the Board of MCS since 2012.

In 2017, O’Drobinak helped create the MCS Foundation, one of Puerto Rico’s finest charitable organizations. In 2012, O’Drobinak was named President of the Puerto Rico Medicaid and Medicare Advantage Products Association (MMAPA) and remained at the helm of MMAPA until 2016, leading the industry’s efforts aimed at protecting federally funded healthcare programs for Puerto Rico. Most recently, he was again named President by MMAPA in 2019 until his term ended in August 2020.

O’Drobinak began his career with Deloitte & Touche, and has excelled in companies such as Advantech, and ABR Information Services, which was later sold to Ceridian. Jim was also founder of Acclaris LLC and a member of its Board of Directors up until its sale in 2010 to a private equity group.

O’Drobinak has been acknowledged in Caribbean Business newspaper’s special edition “Influential Business Leaders” as one of the executives whose leadership sets forth an example for the Puerto Rico's business community. In 2020, O'Drobinak was presented the Antonio Luis Ferré Lifetime Achievement Award by the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce's Board of Directors for his successful trajectory.

Committed to the Puerto Rico community, O'Drobinak is the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of The Salvation Army, a Christian non-profit entity dedicated to address the needs of underprivileged people. Since 2012, O'Drobinak has lived in Condado, and his youngest sons, Eric and Michael, are proud graduates of Baldwin School of Puerto Rico and St. John's School, respectively. Time permitting, Jim also enjoys playing golf at Bahía, where he also maintains a residence.
