

Juan J. Díaz Goitía
Senior Vice President of Information Technology
MCS Healthcare Holdings, LLC.

Juan J. Díaz Goitía is Senior Vice President of Information Technology at MCS Healthcare Holdings, since April 2019. Díaz is in charge of incorporating the latest information technology systems into the company's processes and overall work flow. He is responsible for the execution and direction of information technology, security, business continuity, telecommunications, change management, infrastructure, enterprise architecture, technical support, application development, project management, data governance and data analytics, for all MCS subsidiaries.

Prior to joining MCS, Díaz held several high-ranking positions including Chief Information Officer at Grupo Triple-S and President at TriServe Tech. He also served as Executive Vice-President of Triple-S Vida and Principal at Advent-Morro Equity Partners. Díaz is a graduate in Computer Information Sciences, College of Business at the University of Florida in Gainesville