

Roberto Pando
President of MCS Advantage, Inc. and
MCS Life Insurance Company

Roberto Pando, President of MCS Advantage, Inc. and MCS Life Insurance Company leads both health plans operations, whose services reach out to thousands of insureds and members in Puerto Rico. His leadership is confirmed through his efforts toward developing and strengthening policies focused on protecting federally-funded healthcare programs in the island.

Throughout his trajectory at MCS, Roberto Pando has evolved successfully in many areas including Compliance, Product Development, Marketing, Public Policy and Strategy.

Prior to joining MCS, he worked in the Puerto Rico Trade and Export Company and was a consultant in correctional health projects for the Federal District Court in Puerto Rico. He has been acknowledged in Caribbean Business newspaper's special edition "40 under 40" as one of the executives whose leadership sets forth an example for the Puerto Rico's business community.

Pando sits on the Board of Trustees of the Business Emergency Operations Center (BEOC), an entity that serves as a private-sector advocate for emergency management functions.

Pando has a bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Michigan, a master's degree in Social Planning from the London School of Economics, and a Juris Doctor from the University of Puerto Rico, School of Law.
