

Carmela Oranges
Exec Director Medical Affairs
Cluster North LATAM

Carmela Oranges leads the MSD Medical Department in Cluster North LATAM which includes Colombia, Ecuador, Puerto Rico, Central America and the Caribbean based in Panama.

As Medical Exec Director has being responsible for establishing a network of local thought leaders aimed to facilitate local scientific discussion in health arena and leads the organization of Medical Affairs to support, align and contribute with our commercial operations in all countries of the sub-region.

Her most recent assignment was as Oncology TA Lead in Cluster North. Previously she served as Medical Director for Central America and the Caribbean until June 2020. Venezuela until August 2016, previously she served as Medical Manager (2005- August 2013) and Compliance Officer (2008-2010). Also, she leads the Women's Network Chapter for Central America and works as Advisor in the Recruit, Develop and Retain Pillar for the DE&I Global Medical Team.

She received her Bachelor degree in Medicine from the University of Oriente, Cd Bolívar, Venezuela followed by a Post graduate degree of Pediatrician from the University Central of Venezuela.

Carmela worked for private institution in Caracas, Venezuela and from there has spent most of her professional career with MSD, starting as Medical Manager leading different projects of Continue Medical Education as well as author of some poster presented in scientific Congresses and articles in different Journals.