

Florian Gaa, Abartys Health, General Manager.

Initially Florian joined Abartys in December 2019 as Chief Financial Officer and assumed additional responsibilities to lead the company's Operations since mid of 2021 and General Manager in 2022.

Prior to joining Abartys, Florian gained 20 years of experience in the pharmaceutical industry with Roche, Genentech and AstraZeneca, where he held several financial leadership roles, including country CFO and Head of Global Alliance Controlling. During this time, he also gained relevant leadership experience across different cultures in the global environment with assignments in US, Switzerland, Philippines and Japan, driving business transformations and strategic direction.

Florian holds an Undergraduate and Masters Degree in Education Science/ Business Administration from the University of Mannheim, Germany. Florian also serves as mentor to entrepreneurs of Endeavor Puerto Rico and is a Board Member of Trumpler GmbH & Co. KG, a global chemical manufacturing company.

Short version:

- Over 20 years of experience in BioPharma and Medical devices with Roche, Genentech and AstraZeneca
- Assignments as country CFO, Head Global Alliance Controlling in US, Switzerland, Philippines and Japan