

Guillermo J. Avilés-Mendoza, J.D., LL.M.

Mr. Guillermo Avilés-Mendoza is the Associate Director of Programs at the National Hispanic Health Foundation (NHHF) <https://www.nhmafoundation.org/>. The mission of the NHHF is to support educational and research activities to improve the health of Hispanics.

Mr. Avilés-Mendoza served at the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) and U.S. Public Health Service (USPHS) Commissioned Corps with experiences at the National Institutes of Health (NIH), Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), Office of the Assistant Secretary for Health, Assistant Secretary for Preparedness and Response (ASPR) and the Pan American Health Organization (PAHO).

Mr. Avilés-Mendoza also served as the National Vice President of the Hispanics in Government and as the 2013-2014 President of the HHS-Hispanic Employee Organization, an independent resource, analyst, facilitator, spokesperson, advocate and consultant, representing the needs of the U.S. Hispanic community and HHS Hispanic employees.

Since 2012, Mr. Avilés-Mendoza has served as a member of the Advisory Board of the Ventanillas de Salud to the Mexican Ministry of Health and the Mexican Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The Ventanillas de Salud (Windows of Health) is a health program established by the Government of Mexico through its consular network in the United States. These health windows provide health information, education, and access to health services for Hispanics living in the U.S.

Mr. Avilés-Mendoza is originally from Puerto Rico and is fluent in Spanish and Portuguese. He is a graduate of the Global Health Law Masters in Laws (LL.M.) program from Georgetown University Law Center; Juris Doctor (J.D.) program from Hamline University School of Law and the Genetics and Cell Biology Bachelor degree at the College of Biological Sciences, University of Minnesota.
