

Isabel Rullán

Isabel Rullán is the Co-Founder and Executive Director of ConPRmetidos, a nonprofit organization in Puerto Rico, which she co-founded at age 24 and is playing a key role in the island's recovery. Since Hurricanes Irma and María devastation, Isabel and her team have distributed over 3.3 million dollars for ConPRmetidos programs to assist vulnerable communities throughout the island. They also launched El Comeback, a program to retain and bring back talent to Puerto Rico. Prior to launching ConPRmetidos Isabel worked as the Production Manager of the documentary "Mala Mala", a groundbreaking film about the challenges faced by the transgender community in Puerto Rico.

During her college years, Isabel did internships in the public and private sectors, including the Puerto Rico Federal Affairs Administration Office in Washington D.C. and as Special Assistant to the U.S. Ambassador in El Salvador. Isabel studied Business Administration at the University of Puerto Rico in Mayagüez and at the Polytechnic University of Puerto Rico. Isabel is a Fellow of the Rockefeller Foundation Global Program on Social Innovation and a member of Vital Voices Global Ambassadors Program, an alum of the Schusterman Foundation Latin American Leaders Program and a Fellow of Summit Series, "Love Travels" Marriott International Program, and the Aspen Ideas Festival.
